What's included?

Life in our local communities is full of variety. So much happens within them that there needs to be an organisation that keeps track of what's going on.

That's where local authorities come in, serving our local communities and providing essential services and support.

With over 700 different services, you can't find a more diverse employer than your local authority!

In partnership with Brighton & Hove City Council, Springpod has created Your City, Your Future - a virtual work experience to make your first steps into a career which will transform your local community.

This unique virtual work experience gives you an insight into career pathways within Brighton & Hove City Council, find out which role would suit you best.

What's involved?

You'll get an insight into how the council has a vital part to play in serving your local area. Find out who is responsible for what by exploring the five directorates of Brighton & Hove City Council, (the departments responsible for specific areas).

- Economy, Environment and Culture (EEC)
- Families, Children and Learning (FCL)
- Governance, People and Resources (GPR)
- Health and Adult Social Care (HASC)
